WHAT WE NEED.

There is a tide in the affairs of States as well as of men. It must be obvious to every man who takes the trouble to think, that Tennessee needs emigration and capital. If we had no other industry to des pend upon than that of agriculture, Tennessee has the capacity to produce five times more than is now produced. But in addition to that, we have mineral wealth and manufacturing facilities for the support of a population five times larger the "Nineteenth Century" and other than our present population.

But with all our resources from which to draw wealth and prosperity, we are dependent upon other communities for a large number of articles of daily use. We are too poor to develop these resources, and, we are sorry to say, many of us are too indepent to de many of us are too indolent to do emigration from the North and East.

We have a climate that very nearly approaches perfection. We have facilities for agriculture, mining and manufacturing pursuits that are excellent. Besides, have little of prejudice against Northern people, and can promise them the utmost freedom of opinion and absolute safety from persecution of any kind. What we want to do is, to let the people of the North and East understand on account of his partiality for the these things. Let the invitation be Mormons. General Charles Ewing, a extended to them to come among us and be of us. Now is the time to do it. A few years later may be too late. It certainly will, for the present generation to profit by it.

THAT Gov. Garcelon, of Maine, is a representative of revolutionary Democracy will no longer be denied. monizer, but he has lost his grip now. After counting out, in the most uns scrapulous and outrageous manner, Republicans elected to the Legislature, and counting Democrats in their seats without the show of that he getting ready to enforce with arms. He orders for the removal of the arms in the arsenal at Bangor and is taking them to Augusta, the Capital of the State. Acting upon the example furnished by his illustrious prototype, John B. Floyd, of Virginia, he proposes to take the arms belonging to the State, from the place designated for their safe keeping, and to put them in the hands of his minions to shoot down any man who dares to dispute his authority as the great in the prudence, patriotism, courage and discretion of the Maine Republicans. We believe that they are amply able to take care of thems selves, and that they will commit no foolish or rash act. They know their rights, and they dare maintain them in a lawful manner, and while the Democracy is showing its hand, and going to ruin with gratifying rapidity, the Republicans will come out stronger than ever before.

THE opinion is gaining ground that the Sage of Cipher Alley is intimately connected with the Maine business. It is by such rass cality he expects to come into notice. For ways that are dark, Tilden has a peculiar faculty. Garces lon is doubtless his mercenary tool, and sneezes when Tilden takes snuff. Upon reading of the tricks of the Maine man, one intuitively looks for Pelton and Cronin and Smith Weed, and for the cipher dispatches and the "bar'l." This business will have the same effect upon the Democracy that the other had. It is a kind of "reform" that the people of this country want none of, and whenever they have an opportunity to speak, their voices will be heard in no uncertain tones. The time for such men to win by such means has passed by. They will fall victims to their own folly and

A NEW VOLUME.

Littell's Living Age enters upon its one hundred and forty-fourth volume in January. It has just begun the publication, from advance sheets, of a new serial story by an author who does not often come before the public, but has done some of the best literary work of the day. Those who have read "Dorothy Fox" and "Hero Carthew," by Mrs. Parr, published some The THREE above-named publications, One years ago, do not need to be told that Year... "Adam and Eve," one of the freshest Any TWO above-named, One Year... and most charming serials of the present time. Another new serial, by Mrs. Oliphant, also recently begun in The Living Age, promises to be one of that author's best productions. In this department of the magazine, through the year, the best foreign authors are represented, and the choicest short stories are included.

In science, art, theology, politics and general literature, valuable articles are Canterbury, John Ruskin, Prof. Owen, Prof. Blaikie, James Payn (The Literary Calling and its Future), Jas. A. Froude, Richard A. Proctor, W. Minto (Letters of Charles Dickens), Francis Power Cobbe, Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, and other leading writers, with interesting papers by Mrs. Mulock-Craik, Mrs. Oliphant, Sarah Tytler, etc. The recent decided improvement in foreign periodical litera-ture, caused by the establishment of reviews, is to be carried still further by the founding of new periodicals in 1880; and the ablest minds of the Benefactors.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that, by combining some well-known, valuable remedies, the most wonderful nedicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and bleesed by We have the fullest confidence all as benefactors.

for 1880. During the coming Presidential year, the DAILY CHRONICLE will take an active part in the vigorous discussions of all political issues involved, and will, at the same time, keep its readers fally posted on all the important events of the day. It will do whatever is honest and legitimate to promote the success of the Republican ticket, placing fidelity to the interests of that party above any personal aims or privata ambition. To this end it will favor the selection of good men with clear records, personal and political, for standard bearers in the coming canvass, and when such are selected, it will do everything reasonable to secure their success.

In State politics, the CHRONICLE will support no man for any office, from Governor down to constable, who is not in favor of paying the State debt upon terms satisfactory to the creditors of the State. It will oppose the efforts of repudiationists to drag the entire State down to their low and degraded standard, first, last and all the time, and even though the repudiationists should be successful, it will continue to denounce them and their infamous schemes.

The WHIG AND CHRONICLE will S be published weekly, as before, and will be made up from the issues of the DAILY CHRONICLE. It will contain a choice selection of miscellaneous matter each week, together with editor als, telegraph and local matter. Especial attention will be given its columns, and everything that could be objectionable in the family circle will be carefully excluded.
